Community Event: Bay Buddies Participate in Quick Point Clean-up!

Longboat Key, FL – April 22, 2009 The Sarasota Bay Estuary Program's (SBEP) Bay Buddies are teaming up with Sarasota Bay Watch volunteers, the Town of Longboat Key, Save Our Seabirds and Florida Audubon to remove trash and debris from Quick Point Nature Preserve on Saturday May 2, 2009 from 8:30am to noon.

Participants will meet at the Quick Point Nature Preserve at 8:30 a.m at the southern end of Longboat Key.

Interested in joining us? Then please contact Charlotte Richardson at 941-586-9466 or visit www.sarasotabaywatch.org. Space is limited so call to reserve your spot. Participants must bring wet shoes, gloves, and eye and sun protection with them.

The Sarasota Bay Estuary Program will sponsor 20 Bay Buddies for this event. To find out more about the Bay Buddies visit their website www.baybuddies.org.

To learn more about how you can help restore the area's greatest natural asset – Sarasota Bay, contact the Sarasota Bay Estuary Program at 941-955-8085 or visit www.sarasotabay.org.

The Sarasota Bay Estuary Program is dedicated to restoring the area's greatest natural asset—Sarasota Bay. Its unique program strives to improve water quality, increase habitat and enhance the natural resources of the area for use and enjoyment by the public. Sarasota Bay is one of 28 estuaries in the United States that have been named by the U.S. Congress as an "estuary of national significance."
